

UNIVERSITY WEEKLY

The Week of September 14, 1980

Editor: Paul Marion

Items for the weekly should be sent to the Public Relations Office in Cumnock Hall at least two weeks before the date of an event. Publicity forms are available in the PR Office. All events are free and open to the public unless otherwise indicated.

PAGE ONE

AMERICAN STUDIES GROUP TO MEET - The New England American Studies Association will hold a meeting at the University of Lowell, September 27, in the O'Leary Library. The program, focusing on Lowell History, includes sessions on the Lowell mill girls architecture in the school curriculum, and a talk on the development on Lowell National Historical Park, followed by tours of the city. Interested persons must register before September 15. Fees, including lunch, are $10.00 for non-NEASA members and $7.00 for NEASA members and students. For more information contact Professor Clifford Lewis, English Department.

KUN MIN MEMORIAL FUND - The Mechanical Engineering Department has established a memorial fund in honor of Dr. Kun Min, who served on that faculty for 15 years until his death this past summer. This fund will award an annual prize to the graduating senior with the highest average in Fluid-Thermal science courses. Persons interested in making contributions should contact Mrs. Mary Burke, Mechanical Engineering Department, Ball 211, campus extension 2313.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

- September 14 - REGATTA SEPTEMBER FESTIVAL - This annual celebration features a midway, boat and sailing races, concerts, and an ethnic food tent along the Merrimack at the Regatta Field.
- September 14 - FOOTBALL - U.Lowell vs. Southern Connecticut (away) 1:30 P.M.
- September 15 - FIELD HOCKEY - U.Lowell vs. Bentley (home) 3:30 P.M.
- September 16 - WOMEN'S TENNIS - U.Lowell vs. Worcester State (home) 3:00 P.M.
- September 16 - YWCA WORKSHOP - The YWCA will sponsor a career planning workshop, 7:00 - 9:00 P.M., at the Greater Lowell YWCA, 29 Hanks Street, Lowell, Chris Oatis and Ianett Crews, career development specialists at the University of Lowell, will lead this workshop about changing careers and returning to work. The fee is $10.00 for YWCA members and $12.00 for others, and registration is necessary. For more information contact the YWCA at 454-5405.
- September 17 - SOCCER - U.Lowell vs. Merrimack (home) 3:00 P.M.
- September 18 - FIELD HOCKEY - U.Lowell vs. S.M.U. (away) 3:30 P.M.
WOMEN'S TENNIS - U.Lowell vs. Regis (away) 4:00 P.M.

September 19 - CROSS COUNTRY - U.Lowell vs. Brandeis/
Amherst/Bates (home) 3:00 P.M.

September 19 - FARMERS' MARKET - Fresh fruits and vegetables for sale at Lucy Larcom
Park, downtown Lowell, from 11:00 A.M -
4:00 P.M.

September 20 - WOMEN'S TENNIS - U.Lowell vs. St. Anselm's
(away) 10:30 A.M.

FIELD HOCKEY - U.Lowell vs. Castleton
(home) 1:00 P.M.

SOCCER - U.Lowell vs. Boston University
(away) 1:00 P.M.

FOOTBALL - U.Lowell vs. Central
Connecticut (away) 1:30 P.M.

CAMPUS NOTES

NEWMAN CENTER MASSES - Sunday Masses at the Newman Center will be celebrated at six and ten o'clock on Sunday evenings. Daily Masses are celebrated weekdays at 5 P.M.

PEOPLE - DR. MARTHA MCGOWAN, English, addressed the September meeting of The Lowell Chapter of Hadassah. Her talk, "Who's Aware of Virginia Woolf?" was about teaching women's literature today. DR. PILAR CONCEJO, Language Department, presented a paper this summer at the International Congress on Lope de Vega and the Origins of the Spanish Theatre, held in Madrid, Spain.

YWCA FALL PROGRAMS - The Greater Lowell YWCA is accepting registration for its Fall programs. Contact the YWCA at 454-5405 for information.

FREE MOVIES - The College of Engineering will be presenting free movies every Thursday, 11:30 A.M. - 1:00 P.M., in Ball Engineering Center, room 213. All are welcome.

OFFICE HELP AVAILABLE - Offices in need of part-time help from high school students with basic clerical skills should contact the Public Relations Office. A limited number of students in the Youth Employment and Training Program are available for placement at the University. The positions are approximately 24 hours a week.

CALENDARS AVAILABLE - 1980-81 school year calendars are now available for University offices on a first come, first served basis at the Public Relations Office.

STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS - The Council for the Advancement and Support of Education is offering undergraduate scholarships to a career conference for persons interested in public relations, alumni administration, fund raising, and management. The meeting will be held January 25-28, 1981, in Hartford, Connecticut. For more information contact the Public Relations Office by October 15.

24-HOUR EVENTS LINE - Call 452-3110 for daily information.